What's in it for YOU :

Being a member of an Intercountry Committee (ICC) can provide a Rotary club with the opportunity to participate in international service projects and cultural exchanges, as well as connect with other Rotary clubs from different countries.

Additionally, being part of an ICC can help a club gain a better understanding of global issues and cultural perspectives, which can enhance the club's ability to serve its local community.

Furthermore, being a member of an ICC can increase a club's visibility and reputation both locally and internationally.

Being a member of the BELUX – INDONESIA Inter-Country Committee will give access to the CIP ASEAN which consists of 11 countries - Brunei, Burma, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam.
